

► For Trainers

The Family History Guide | thefhguide.com

The breakthrough training site for consultants, trainers, and leaders

The Family History Guide can help you:

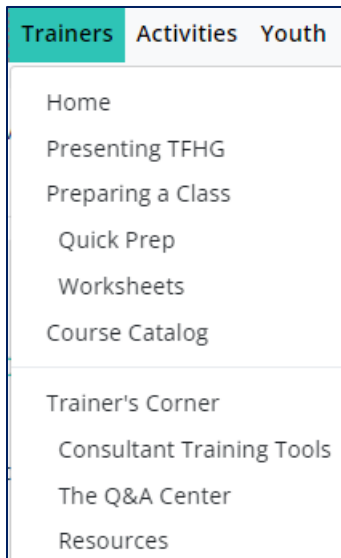

- Use The Family History Guide website as your teaching platform; easy prep.
- Explore a Course Catalog with hundreds of offerings, from hour-long to 20 min. per class.
- Get tips on training individuals, families, groups, and consultants.
- Prepare classes easily, with no slide decks and handouts to build.
- Track individual learner progress, with our powerful Online Tracker.
- Take advantage of Instructor Tips provided on the website.

► SCAN to SEE
the WEBSITE

Build a top-quality family history training program, with no slide decks to prepare!

On www.thefhguide.com – Training Made Easy

From the top menu, select Trainers

Course Catalog

The Course Catalog is an assortment of classes that can be offered from the website, from 15 to 60 minutes in length. For example:

- Beginning Family History
- FamilySearch Family Tree Navigation
- Web Indexing
- Ancestry Hints and Sources
- Getting Organized for Research
- United States Vital Records

Presenting TFHG

- Learn how to present “Introduction to The Family History Guide” – a 50-minute session w/ 10 minutes of Q&A – right from the website.
- Use Guidance slides to help you keep on track. The slides also contain speaker notes with tips.

Consultant Training Tools

- Get tips for training family history consultants.
- Download and use spreadsheets in the Q&A Center to practice finding answers to visitors’ questions.
- Facebook Group: Trainers/Consultants/Directors

Preparing a Class

- Learn how to prepare a family history class easily and efficiently, without building slide decks and handouts.
- Use a simple worksheet to select course material.
- Use the Quick Prep page to prepare mini-classes.

Training Resources

In the Trainers Corner,

- Explore quizzes for Goals and Projects.
- Create report groups and run learning progress reports for consultants or learners.
- Enjoy tips on a wide variety of training topics.
- Download and use course evaluation sheets for classes that are taught.